

Newfoundland & Labrador Conference, East and West Districts
Expression of Interest Information Sheet
For "Opportunities to Serve"
Committees, Task Groups, Represented Positions

Mandates/Job Descriptions for "Opportunities to Serve" are available on the Newfoundland & Labrador Conference website www.newlabconf.com, and are circulated to all pastoral charges from time to time. If you are interested in serving the wider church through the District or Conference, please submit an "expression of interest" to the appropriate Nominations Chair. We also ask you to encourage others who you think might have the interest, time and skills for a particular committee. Please note Term of Office: Two years renewable once

Skills and Experience:

The Nominations Committees are looking for people with the following characteristics:

- committed to the mission of The United Church of Canada and willing to discern prayerfully God's yearning/desire/will for this work and for themselves;
- active participants in a local pastoral charge or outreach ministry (in some cases, Full church membership is required);
- familiar with or willing to learn the governance model of our Church;
- desire to work co-operatively and consult, inasmuch as possible, persons who will be affected by decisions.
